

OREGON'S ECONOMY: WHERE WE STAND & WHERE WE'RE HEADED

Join us for an in-depth discussion of Oregon's economy considering local, national and world events currently affecting our state. This timely discussion brings together leading experts to explore the state's economic growth, job market, budget and revenue uncertainty, the impact of federal policy and tariffs, healthcare challenges, and the vital role of public institutions and higher education.

With insights from economists Jeff Renfro, Peter Huselman, Robert McCullough, Rajiv Sharma, Sheila Martin, Jenny Liu, and Tom Potiowsky, this event will shed light on both the obstacles and opportunities shaping Oregon's future.

JOIN US

| | | |
|-------------------|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9 October 2025 | 3:30 - 5 PM | University Pointe, Room 102 550 SW College St. Portland, Oregon 97201 |
|-------------------|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|

